The summer of 2011 in Haida Gwaii – formally called the Queen Charlotte Islands – will be full of adventure with family festivals, wilderness activities and the always fascinating local island culture. The beauty and spirit of Haida Gwaii are prominent features of the islands – apparent when you step off the ferry, boat or plane. Our theme “when you’re reached the edge of your world, ours begins” is not only catchy, it’s true.

In the upcoming months, there are a number of festivals and activities:

- Masset Harbour Days May 21-22
- Aboriginal Day Celebration around June 21
- Hospital Day Parade in Queen Charlotte June 18
- Canada Day Celebration (Mud Bog Races) July 1 weekend
- Skidegate Days (Canoe Races, Volleyball and Activities) July 14-16
- Totem to Totem Marathon July 16
- Logger Sports Day in Sandspit July 23
- Tlell Fall Fair July 31
- Edge of the World Music Festival August 5-7
- Haida Heritage Celebration August 20

Haida Gwaii is great for hardy adventurers, sports enthusiasts, or individuals, couples, and families who simply want to vacation in a relaxing environment and soak up culture. Haida Gwaii offers endless recreational opportunities such as fishing, hiking, and camping in and around protected parks and reserves of diverse wildlife and flora.
